WELCOME TO NEW MEMBERS

MR. CHAIRMAN: Hon. Members, just now the newly elected Members have taken oath and their seats in the House. It gives me great pleasure to congratulate them and extend to them a very warm welcome. . .(Interruptions). . .on behalf of this House and on my own behalf.

Some of the Members have been re-elected and they need no introduction to the procedure, conventions and traditions of the House. Others who are new to the House will, I am sure, very soon acquaint themselves with the spirit and the content of parliamentary procedure and practice. I have every confidence that those who have now joined us will contribute in a manner as would enrich the proceedings of the House, enhance its prestige and serve to take our great country forward.

With these few words, I once again welcome the new Members and wish them every success in the months and years ahead.

Papers to be laid on the Table of the House. (Interruptions)

[The Deputy Chairman in the Chair]
